

HIGHLIGHTS OF EXPERIENCE

Commonwealth Engineers, Inc., Downingtown, PA (2014 - Present)

Project Engineer involved in design of residential and commercial land development. Responsibilities include sanitary system design, road and lot layout and acquisitions of local, state and federal permits. Also prepares all stormwater management and erosion and sediment control along with sewerage NPDES Permits (and similar) from the PaDEP.

Dewberry Engineers, Inc., Glenn Allen, VA (2013 - 2014)

Worked on various electric substation land development projects which included designing the stormwater management system, drainage structures and erosion & sedimentation control plan for a proposed electric substation expansion project for the South Boston Substation Expansion. Also designed site grading, stormwater management drainage structures, and erosion and sedimentation control plan for the new Prince Edward Substation.

Whitman, Requardt and Associates, LLP, Richmond, VA (2008 - 2013)

Design Engineer for various public drainage projects including the Lee Road Culvert Extension and the King George County Government Center.

Resource International, LTD, Ashland, VA (2005 - 2006)

Responsible for beginning phases of land development projects including the Iron Hill Subdivision in Hanover County.

Ludgate Engineering Corporation, Reading, PA (1999 to 2005)

Responsible for various residential and commercial land development projects.

Langan Engineering and Environmental Services, Elmwood Park, NJ (1998 – 1999)

Inspected various aspects of site construction projects for compliance with specifications.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering
Lehigh University
Bethlehem, PA
Graduated 1998